

AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES

Summer 2022

AIS 103 The Indigenous Pacific Northwest

Charlotte Coté

A term: T/W/Th 12:00-2:50

5 cr. I&S and DIV

Introduces students to the Northwest Coast Indigenous peoples. Summer class includes multiple hands-on experiences including plant walks around the UW campus, visiting the Intellectual House, possibly visiting the Seattle Art Museum or a day of the Northwest Canoe Journeys, as well as a traditional cedar weaving activity.

AIS 313 Southern Lushootseed Language

Tami Hohn

A term: M/T/W/Th 3:30-5:40

5 cr elective/foreign language

- ♦ 100% distance learning, online synchronous class
- ♦ Counts for Foreign Language requirement or possible VLPA
- ♦ Especially good for non-traditional learners - learn through games like Bingo and storytelling, no final exams
- ♦ Learn the language spoken by the Native peoples in this area
- ♦ No prerequisites - Students of all majors and levels welcome

For more info, contact academic advisor Kai Wise at kaiwise@uw.edu