

AUTUMN QUARTER 2022 RESEARCH EXPOSED!

GEN ST 391 I: SLN 15986

W

The Undergraduate Research Program's Autumn 2022 Research Exposed! course will feature University of Washington faculty from a wide range of academic disciplines. This course may be taken for credit (1 credit/quarter, 3 quarters max.) Each lecture is open to interested faculty, students, staff, alumni, and community members.

Research Exposed! is co-sponsored by the Undergraduate Research Program (URP), the Odegaard Undergraduate Library, and Undergraduate Academic Affairs.

Wednesdays from 12:30-1:20 pm in Bagley 154
Facilitated by Sophie Pierszalowski and Allison Perez

Featuring presentations by...

Drew Gorman
Earth & Space Sciences

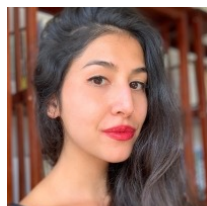

Shawn Wong
English

Joshua Smith
Electrical & Computer Engineering

Milla Titova
Psychology

Bianca Dang
History

Dustin Maly
Chemistry

Daniel Promislow
Biology, Laboratory Medicine &
Pathology

Monica Guo
Microbiology

For more information, visit washington.edu/undergradresearch/courses/research-exposed
Contact the URP at urp@uw.edu with questions