

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

THE BONDERMAN FELLOWSHIP

The Graduate School & Undergraduate Academic Affairs

About The Bonderman Fellowship

The Bonderman Fellowship offers University of Washington graduate, professional, and graduating senior undergraduate students an opportunity to engage in independent exploration and international travel. Bonderman Fellowships give students the chance to explore, be open to the unexpected, and come to know the world in new ways. Open to all fields of study. Students with limited/no international experience and those from low-income backgrounds are particularly encouraged to apply (undergraduate only).

Deadline: Thursday, January 16 at 5 pm PST

Website: bonderman.uw.edu

Eligibility

- Be U.S. citizens or permanent residents.
- Be enrolled in a University of Washington undergraduate, graduate or professional degree program the quarter the application is due (Winter Quarter 2025).
 - On leave status is not considered “enrolled”.
 - Professional students include those in Law (JD), Medicine (MD), Dentistry (DDS), and Pharmacy (PharmD) degree programs.
- Undergraduate applicants must be planning to graduate in winter 2025, spring 2025, summer 2025 or autumn 2025. You must graduate before you start your travels.
- Be in good academic, conduct and disciplinary standing during the quarter the application is due.
- If awarded, good academic, disciplinary and conduct standing is a prerequisite of receiving the fellowship.

Quick facts:

- 8 months of consecutive travel
- 6 countries minimum, 9 maximum
- 2 world regions minimum, 3 maximum
- $26,000 award
- Travel plans should be personal; formal study, research, or participation in a program is not allowed

Info & Q&A Sessions

