Burma/Myanmar Four Years After the 2021 Military Coup d'etat

**SEE ROOM UPDATE BELOW****

Join Jackson School Associate Professor Mary Callahan as she explores the evolving crisis in Myanmar four years after the 2021 coup.

In February 2021, Senior General Min Aung Hlaing led a military coup that ousted Myanmar's democratically elected government, headed by State Counsellor Aung San Suu Kyi, whose party had won a historic landslide in the November 2020 elections. Since late 2023, the Myanmar military has suffered one unprecedented battlefield humiliation after another, as it faces the nationwide uprising of hundreds of armed, anti-state groups committed to a revolution to remove the army from political power for the first time in history.
