

Program on the Environment
ASE Open Hire Departmental Posting
Graduate Hourly Assistant
Position Announcement for open position Spring 2022

Application Deadline: April 18th 2022

Employment Period: April 25th – June 16th 2022

The UW Program on the Environment seeks to hire a graduate hourly assistant to investigate aspects of Environmental Studies programs across the United States. The appointment will run for the rest of spring quarter, approximately 12-15 hours per week. Salary: $20-25/hour

Responsibilities include:

The assistant's primary role is to research curriculum and structures of U.S. Environmental Studies programs. The graduate student hired will meet weekly with the faculty member for guidance and feedback.

Requirements:

- Academic Standing as a UW graduate student and eligibility to hold an hourly position
- Excellent written, verbal and interpersonal communication skills;
- Availability for full appointment timeframe.

Equivalent education/experience will substitute for all minimum qualifications except when there are legal requirements, such as a license/certification/registration.

Compensation: $20-25.00/hour. The assistant will work a maximum of 120 hours.

To Apply:

Please fill out the Google Form – you will need to use your UW netid to log on. If you have any trouble logging in, please let Kristi Straus (kmstraus@uw) know – this is a surprisingly common problem.

Google Form is here: <https://forms.gle/Xacux8oeuaTdwhfu9>

Deadline: Submit your application materials by April 18, 2022

Acceptance: If offered the position, the candidate must accept within one week.

Notes: This job classification is governed by a negotiated labor contract.

The University of Washington is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

<https://ap.washington.edu/eoaa/aapolicy/> To request disability accommodation in the application process, contact Disability Services Office, <https://hr.uw.edu/dso/services/> 206-543-6450, 206-543-6452 (TTY) or dso@uw.edu